As these questions have already been taken up for challenge by SSC, the option for challenging them will remain disabled and candidates are not required to make any payment for them or challenge them.

(B) Challengeable Questions: These are the questions where no apparent errors have been found during the review process by SSC. However, these questions will remain open for challenge, and candidates can submit their representations if they believe there is an issue with any of the questions/options/answers.

4. The Representation / Grievance (if any) against Challengeable Questions in Tentative Answer Keys may be submitted online from 26.09.2025 to 30.09.2025 (06:00 PM) on payment of Rs.50/- (Rupees Fifty only) per question/answer challenged.
